The reason for this eviction is:

(NOTE: All applicable reasons for eviction may be checked but the above listed expiration date must comply with the notice requirements set forth in RSA 540:3 II; the time frame for eviction notices may vary depending upon the reason for eviction.)

- ☐ Your failure to pay the rent that was due and in arrears when you received the Demand for Rent that was served on you on _____. You failed to pay rent due for the rent period of _____. You now owe $_____ in back rent.

(7 DAY NOTICE IS REQUIRED PER RSA 540:3, II; BUT NOTE: IF THE REASON FOR EVICTION IS NON-PAYMENT OF RENT, THE FEDERAL CORONAVIRUS AID, RELIEF AND ECONOMIC SECURITY (CARES) ACT, PUBLIC LAW 116-136, MAY REQUIRE ADDITIONAL NOTICE TO THE TENANT.)

You may be able to stop this eviction if you pay the full amount you owe before your court hearing.

To do this, you must pay:

- All rent due through the date of payment,
- $15 in liquidated damages,
- Any other lawful charges under your lease, and
- If the eviction case has already been filed in court, the filing fee and service costs shown on the sheriff's return of service.

Payment must be made in cash, certified check, prepaid money order, electronic transfer, or other guaranteed funds. A written promise from a government agency (state, local, or one that handles federal funds) to pay the full amount also counts as payment.

You may only use this option to stop an eviction for nonpayment of rent three (3) times in any twelve-month period.

FREE MEDIATION IS AVAILABLE FOR RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD AND TENANTS

Mediation is free:

Landlord and tenant mediation is provided at no cost to the parties.

Mediation gives the parties control:

A trained, neutral mediator helps the parties discuss their issues and explore options to resolve their dispute. The parties can decide whether to participate in mediation and whether to settle their case or not. They do not give up any rights by participating in mediation.

Mediation is confidential:

Anything that is discussed in mediation is confidential and cannot be revealed outside of mediation, including in any eviction case that may be filed.

Mediation is convenient:

Mediation takes place remotely, by video or telephone, at a time agreed to by all the parties.

Mediation must be started before a case is filed, for most cases:

For most court locations, mediation is only available before a case is filed in court (i.e. before a Landlord and Tenant Writ is issued). Post-filing mediation is only available in a few locations. If an eviction notice has been served, parties must request mediation immediately.

To request mediation:

- Call: 603-271-6418
- Email: evictiondiversion@courts.state.nh.us

Important Notice: A request for mediation does not automatically pause a landlord and tenant case. If you are served with a Landlord and Tenant Writ, you must file an Appearance with the court which issued the Writ no later than the "return date" listed on the Writ. If you do not, the court may evict you and/or order you to pay money to the landlord without hearing from you.
